

USB 2.0 Host Link Installation Step :

Steps By Steps to Install M5632 HOST LINK 【For Win98SE/ME/2K/XP】

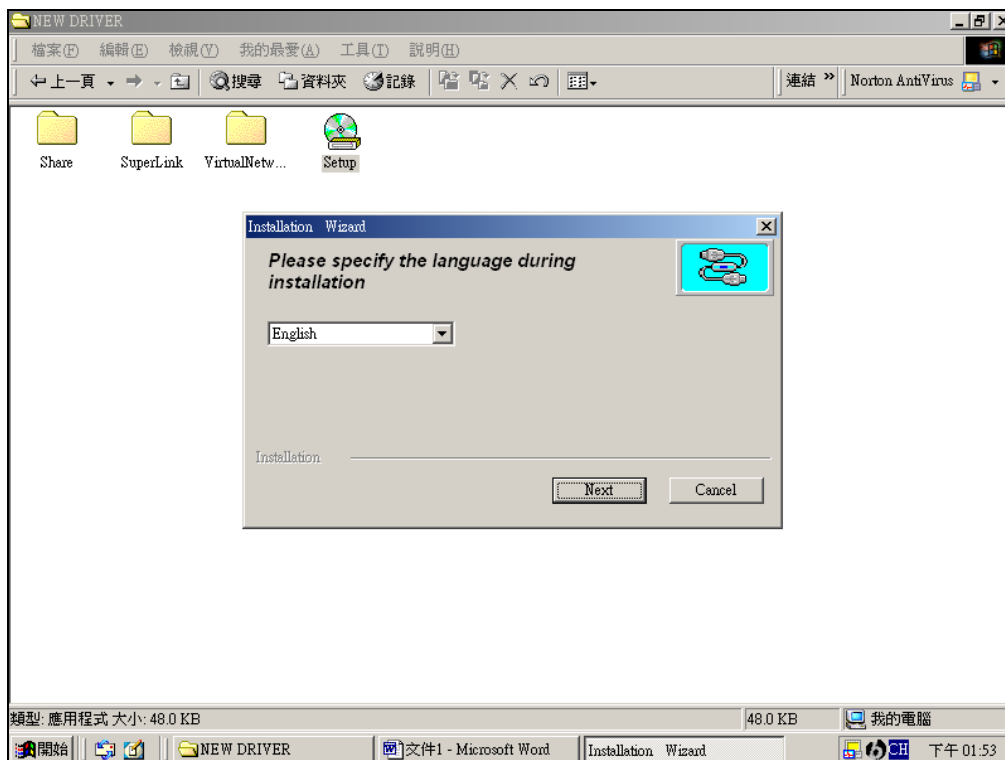

USB 2.0 USB Host Link driver v.1.20 support on Windows 2000,98,ME and XP.

Step1 : Inset the CD driver to CD-ROM

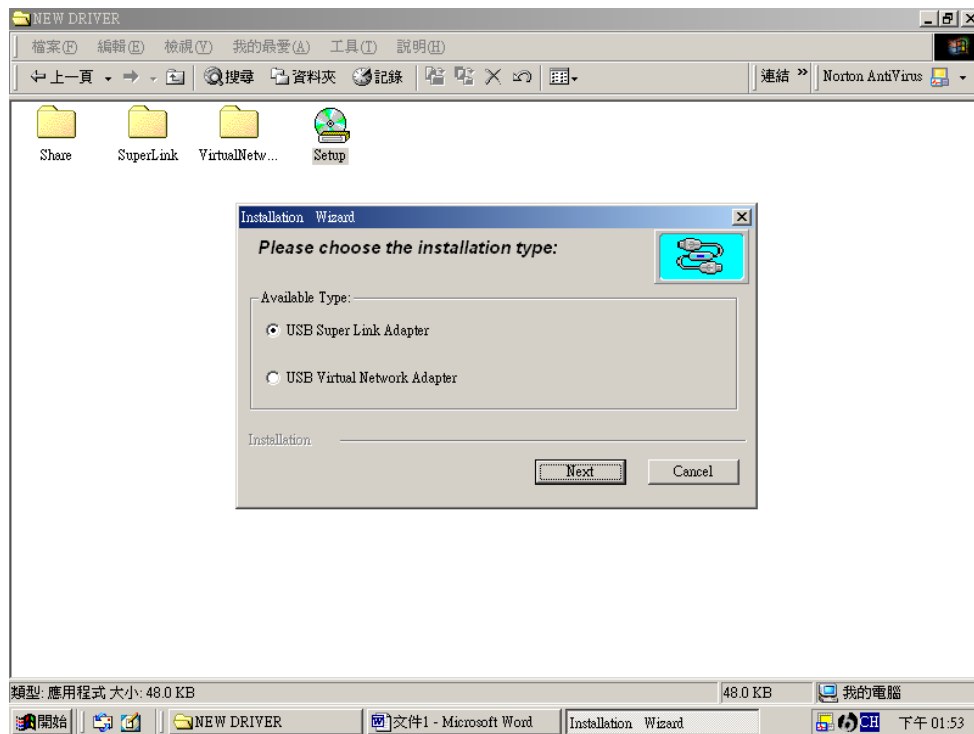

Step2 : Double click “Setup.exe”

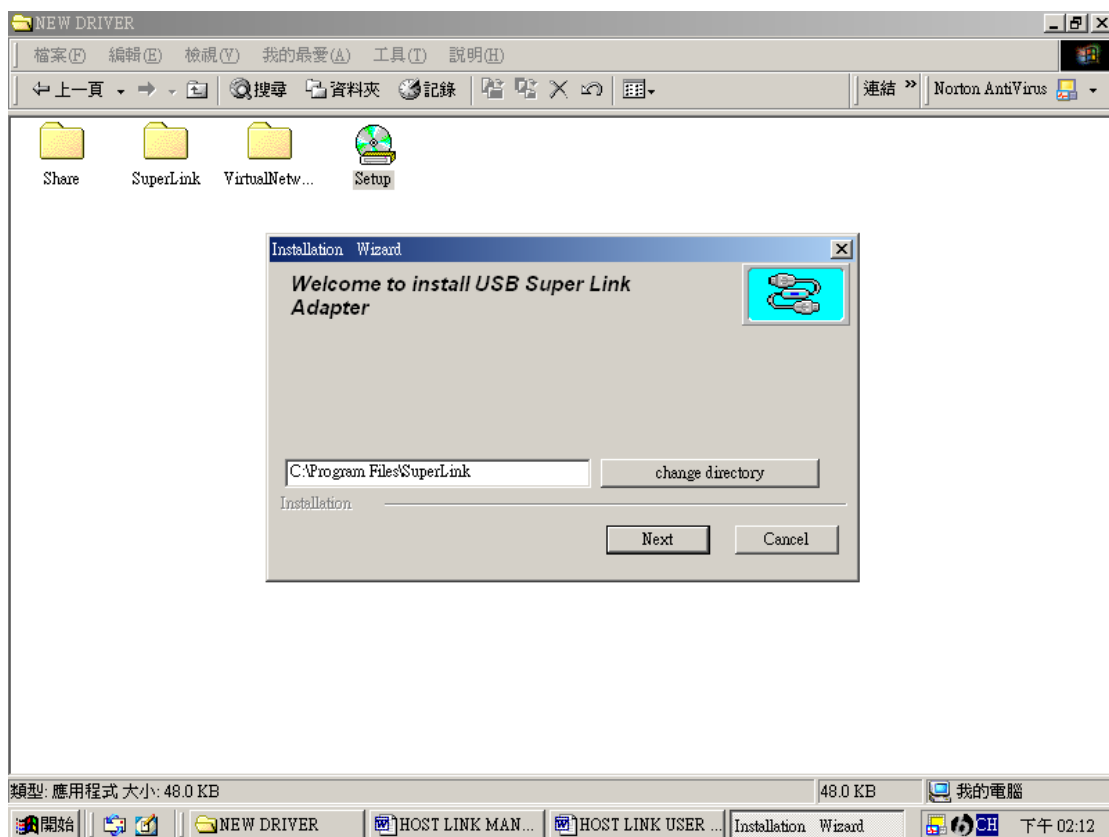

Step3 : Language choose than” choose click “Next”

Step4 : Available Type “USB Super Link Adapter”, choose click “Next”

Step5 : Choose click “Next”

Step6 : The driver has been setup successfully. Choose click “Finish”.

Step7 : After installation is complete, a shortcut of the SuperLink will be placed on your Windows desktop.

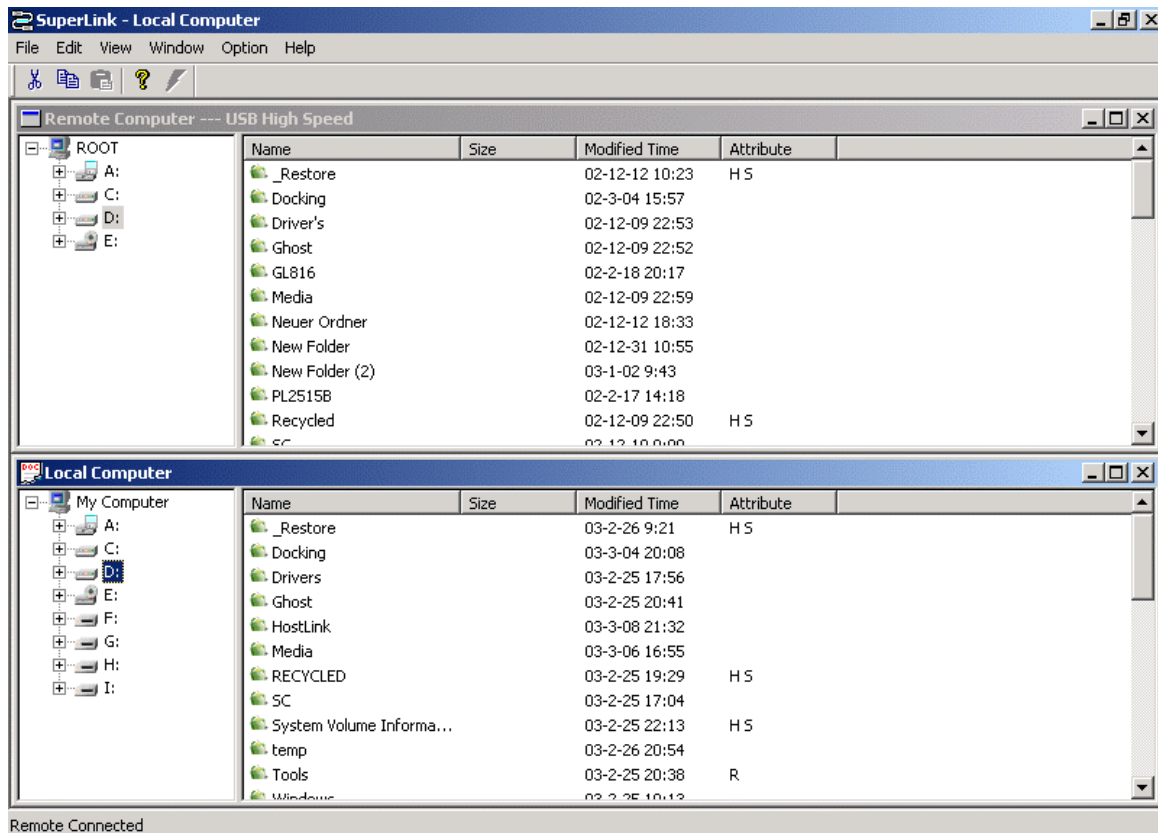

program

Step8 : Plug in both ends of the Host Link USB cable to the two computers.

Step9 : Double-click on the SuperLink shortcut icon on your desktop screen. Do the same for the other computer.

Step10 : The SuperLink File Manager will appear on your screen and will detect both the local and remote machine. This is much similar with Windows Explorer file.

Step11 : Manager where you can cut, copy, paste, or drag files and folders.

Step12 : You can also print text or document files from the remote machine to your local printer by clicking on the file and run File-Print command.